

When Troubles Come

Bruce Steele

The image shows a piano accompaniment for the hymn 'When Troubles Come'. It consists of three systems of music, each with a treble and bass clef staff. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is 3/4. The first system starts with a treble clef and a bass clef. The second system starts with a treble clef and a bass clef. The third system starts with a treble clef and a bass clef. The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with chords and single notes.

When troubles come, and all is dark,
When grief and sorrows overwhelm our days;
When all our best intentions seem to go astray
And we feel sure that we have lost our way.

*Then we affirm 'God's loving-kindness
Holds and sustains us surely night and day.'*

When happiness is shining bright
When smiles and laughter liven up our days;
When dull routine and duty seem as light as day
And we are confident we're on our way.

The we affirm 'God's ... '

God keep us mindful of your grace;
In joys and sorrows may we feel your touch;
Redeem our anxious fears, and when we falter
Guide and protect us ever in your way.

*And we will praise your loving-kindness
Which holds and keeps us surely night and day.*
